

HR1-5-102 Roll call -- Quorum.

- (1) The presiding officer or the presiding officer's designee shall:
 - (a) take a roll call of representatives at the beginning of each day's session; and
 - (b) ensure that the names of those present and absent are recorded in the journal.
- (2)
 - (a) The House may not begin House business until a constitutional majority of representatives are present as a quorum.
 - (b) Notwithstanding Subsection (2)(a), less than a majority of representatives may:
 - (i) convene each day; and
 - (ii) compel the attendance of absent members.
